POINTS TO CONSIDER

Before discussing estate planning and tax consequences with us, you may want to consider and discuss the following among yourselves:

1. Which, if any, of your beneficiaries (e.g. husband, wife, children, grandchildren, dependent parents, charities or others) do you want to receive property outright and which, if any, do you want to receive property in trust?
2. To what extent do you want your trust beneficiaries to be able to direct what happens to your property on their deaths?
3. If you have young children, do you want to create one trust for all your children so that the trustee can allocate assets based on need until the youngest reaches a certain age or do you want to divide all assets equally upon your death or if applicable upon the death of your surviving spouse? Similarly, at what age or ages do you want your children (or other beneficiaries) to have control over part or all of what you give them?
4. If your children were to adopt any children, would you want the adopted children to be treated the same as natural children?
5. Who do you want to be your executors?
6. If you decide to create a trust, who do you want to be your trustees?
7. If you have minor children, who do you want to be their guardian?
